

Dr(adv)Vandana Srivastava
Bachelor in Science, Master In Pub Administration with Specialisation in Human Resource
LLB, LLM, PhD in International Law

Vandana Srivastava is a Practicing Lawyer and Business Consultant by profession and a philanthropist by heart. She is an Indian National, currently based in Geneva, Switzerland.

As the founding member and Chairperson of the Karna Subarna Welfare Society (established in 2007 in Murshidabad, West Bengal), Vandana has dedicated herself to supporting marginalized communities. She is also the Founder and COO of V4U Radio and TV, a non-profit platform focusing on women's empowerment, mental health, diversity and inclusion, and old age advocacy. Additionally, she is the Founder and Director of Edufinite Concept, which promotes educational initiatives.

With a career spanning journalism, law, consultancy, digital creativity, and corporate roles, Vandana has worked with prominent national and international institutions in India and abroad. In Dubai, she was actively involved with the Indian Worker Resource Centre (now Pravasi Bharatiya Sahayata Kendra), an initiative of the Government of India, providing legal support to distressed Indian expatriates. As Business Consultant she was aiding in company setups. She has also contributed to several government and NGO programs supporting marginalized communities, the specially-abled, and women in distress.

On International Women's Day, the All India Railway Federation (AIRF) acknowledged Vandana for her efforts in women empowerment. She has also brought many decorated Padma awardees, artists, and inspirational figures to her platform to spread awareness and advocate important social issues.

Her accolades include the Dr. APJ Kalam International Women's Excellence Award (2018), the Hindi Bhasha Diwas Award from CGI Dubai, and the Woman Empowerment Award (2020) from Gurunanak Darbar, Dubai. Currently, she also covers UN events for her NGOs.